

Why was this made?

Someone is butthurt about him breaking his arm when he tried to fight me. Btw, came to my house uninvited when respectfully, I didn't go to his when he didn't want me there. He comes to my house to mess it up and leave and ends up fighting me and getting his arm broken when I didn't throw a single punch. This would've been avoided if he just showed some respect and he would've gotten his Meta glasses money and all would've been good, but he can't be respectful, he a degenerate spoiled autistic kid.

He's so butthurt he's tryna keep me out of the group somewhat started by me, tryna make his and our friends stay away from me, and try to keep me away from the plots. He kicks me out of all the group chats as well, boojay, kirkaine, and whatever group chats he has with those girls in Palm Spring - and any of these group chats are made because he's salty and he's a pussy. He comes at me about how the archives are immature and I'm a grown man when he "my friend at the time" makes a group chat I can't be in just to make fun of me and he has had this since November of 2025 so he can't be talking. He planned on destroying my Airbnb in Palm Springs which didn't go well, he as my long friend with lots of memories tried to get his friend Kylo to press me over money I owed instead of understanding the situation because of what happened in Palm Springs and he wouldve got his money. Kirk comes to me and says I'm a grown man, he's older than me, and I'm ahead of him in life. He says I do nothing all day, he literally smokes all day and night frying his brain and he recently started doing different type of drugs then calling his boys for plots when they have better things to do. He's daddy's money, retarded, and autistic and that's all he will be because he won't grow up. After everything I've done, drove him around before he got his license, made him friends, brought him to my plots, picked him up times he needed, been there for him, got him out of bad situations ETC, this is how he wants to treat me, like dog shit. Makes ChatGPT edits as well, when he doesn't realize I'm on another level of that. So enjoy the website. He can change, and we can stop.

If he tried to rebel back on Instagram, Snapchat, or TikTok. I know how to get his accounts banned and taken down. Better yet, best thing for him to do is not rebel back and act mature and there wont be issues. I already know someone who is bitch is gonna also try to help him because he has never done anything by himself. He's had a helper/aid since he was born, and he still needs one.
